

Catholic Communities and Books during the Early Modern Period (circulation, uses, business, consumption)

Capella (Villa Schifanoia)

Program:

Thursday 16th February 2012.

13:00. Lunch

Session 1. 14:30-16:00.

-Antonella Romano (EUI): writing and circulating books beyond religious boundaries: the case of the missionaries (1580-1660)

-Noel Golvers (Katholieke Universiteit Leuven): Western Books as Tools of Meditation, Missionary Action and Scholarly Communication in the Jesuit Mission of China (17th-18th century)

Chair: Jorge Flores

Coffe break

Session 2. 16:30-18:00.

-Idalia García Aguilar (Universidad Nacional de México): Antes de que nos condenen: miedos inquisitoriales y bibliotecas particulares de la Nueva España

-Clive Griffin (University of Oxford): Religious books in the early trade between Seville and Mexico: a curious case from 1543

Chair: Adrien Delmas

Dinner

Friday 17th February 2012

Session 3. 9:00-11:00.

-Bianca Lindorfer (Universität Wien): Aristocratic book consumption in the 17th century: Austrian aristocratic book collectors and the role of noble networks in the circulation of books from Spain to Austria

-Paola Molino (EUI): Counter-reforming court libraries before Possevino's Bibliotheca selecta. Vienna, Madrid, and Munich as case studies

-Rafael Pérez García (Universidad de Sevilla): Recepción social y apropiaciones culturales de los autores franciscanos recogidos en España durante el siglo XVI

Chair: Bartolomé Yun Casalilla

Coffe break

Session 4. 11:30-13:00

-Angela Nuovo (Università degli Studi di Udine): The Book Market in Italy: Structure and Regulation (Il mercato del libro in Italia: struttura e regolamentazione)

-Pedro Rueda (Universitat de Barcelona): The Globalization of the European Book Market: Diego Crancer's Catalogus Librorum (Sevilla, 1680) and the sale of books in New Spain (La globalización del mercado del libro europeo: El Catalogus librorum (Sevilla, 1680) de Diego Crancer y la venta de libros en Nueva España)

Chair: Natalia Maillard Álvarez

Lunch

Session 5. 15:00-16:30

-Valentina Sebastiani (University Erfurt-Gotha): How to re-shape the res publica christiana. On Erasmus' books printed by the Frobens in Basel (1514-1536)

-Natalia Maillard Álvarez (EUI): Italian Literature in the Hispanic World: from Humanism to Counter-Reformation (Seville and Mexico City).

Chair: Antonella Romano

Coffe break

Session 6. 17:00-18:30

-Stinj Van Rossem (Universiteit Antwerpen): The Bookshop of the Counter-Reformation: Antwerp as an international hub for catholic books in the 17th century

-Adrien Delmas (EUI): "Artem quaevis tera alit": books in the Cape colony in the 17th and 18th centuries (circulation of books within the Dutch East India Company)

Chair: Daniel Hershenzon

Dinner